To Shareholders and Directors of The Farmers National Bank, Appomattox, Virginia.
January 8, 1957.

It is with profound regret and a sense of great loss that we record the passing on November 1, 1956, of C. S. McIlwarmon, a fellow director and officer of this Bank. Mr. McIlwarmon had served "his Bank" most faithfully in every capacity assigned to him; as Director, Vice President, and chairman of the Examining Committee. For years he had served "his bank" in all these capacities with a heart of love and devotion.

We are extremely thankful for his many long years of service allotted him and that he could serve, actively and regularly to the very end.

His years of wisdom served well as council on many a perplexing occasion. There was never any question of his stand on matters of importance. He profited from many years of experience and was always keenly conscious of the trials and tribulations of all business in the depression years of the 30's. He was a great advocater of that well known practice of "checks and balances" which had developed into a philosophy of caution, preparedness and "safety first;" truly essential qualities of sound banking.

A copy of this memorial is made a part of our official minutes and a copy sent the family.

In Memoriam

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my mother, Mrs. Edna W. Baldwin, who departed this life 24 years ago, Feb. 2.
It was, on a Thursday night,
I will never forget the day.
When an angel came and
Took my mother away.
The Golden Gates were open,
A gentle voice said, Come,
And with farewells unspoken,
She gently entered home.
Though God has her in His keeping,
I still have her in my heart.
—Sadly missed by,
Daughter.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to everyone for their kindness and thoughtfulness during the illness and death of our mother, Mrs. G. W. Lewis. Also for the food and many cards and flowers. —The Children.

proximately one out of every males in the nation's colland universitisies is a veteran, ed under the Korean GI Bill, d. Further, large numbers of are sare expected to be attendchools of learning for at least five or six years.

plete Korean GI Bill fall ent figures, released by VA, disclosed a record - breaking 473,000 veterans in college.

This is 12 per cent above last fall's Korea GI college enrollments of 416,600 and 8 per cent higher than the previous record of 436,600 reached in the spring of 1956.

This year, males on the campus . . veterans and non-veterans together . . number 1,916,000.

GI students in college probably never again will be as numerous as they were shortly after World War II, when three out of four males in school were World War II veterans, and veteran college enrollments totaled more than 1,000,000 for three successive years.

Yet, the current number of Korean veterans in college is still enough to exert a real impact.

In addition to the 473,000 GI college students this fall, VA said that there were 287,000 other Korea veterans enrolled in schools below the college level, on-the-job training, and on-the-farm training.

NEW BOOK IN THE COUNTY LIBRARY

Miracle in the Mountains, by Harnett T. Kane.

It all started one day when, M tha Berry spending a Sunday aft... noon at an old log cabin near her home, where she kept her books, looked up to see three grimy little boys peeping in the window. At first they were too shy to talk to her, but finally she tempted them with apples and persuaded them to come in. Martha told them Bible stories and held them spellbound. The next Sunday they were back with some of their brothers and sisters . . and Martha Berry's log cabin school began. The story of how she, a small pretty southern woman, built the Berry Schools is told in this absorbing and inspiring biography.
